ROOTS OF YAYOI

YAYOI-KEN

Est. 1886 in Japan

從京橋新橋迄煉瓦石造商家之圖 (日本) 国立国会図書館蔵

The Meiji restoration opened Japan to the world.

People from many countries flocked into Japan and influenced its culture.

During this era, in 1886, YAYOI-KEN first opened as a European restaurant and introduced a brand new food culture to the people in Japan.

Today in YAYOI, we take a new approach to introduce to the world our much loved everyday meal, TEISHOKU.

TEISHOKU

TRADITIONAL JAPANESE SET MEALS

Experience Japanese “TEISHOKU” at YAYOI

“Teishoku” is a very simple yet well-balanced set meal which is served on a tray with a combination of steamed rice, miso soup, a main dish of your choice, vegetables and pickles. Teishoku exemplifies a very popular everyday cuisine in Japan.

Teishoku is never complete without a good bowl of rice. At YAYOI, we take pride in serving only the finest quality rice.
